

Dr. Pulak Ghosh is currently a faculty of Decision Sciences and Center of Public Policy of the Indian Institute of Management Bangalore (IIMB). He also holds the IIMB Chair Professor of Excellence. Prof. Ghosh serves as a Distinguished fellow at NitiAyoog (Govt of India's highest policy making body), member of National statistics Commission, and consults corporates and Govt. on various issues of policies relating to finance, economics, Big Data, AI and emerging technologies and fintech.

Prof. Ghosh was the Advisory group member of Big data at the United Nations (UN) Global Pulse, a big data initiative by UN. He is a member of the prestigious Karnataka Knowledge Commission and Chairman of the big data initiative. Prof. Ghosh was a senior advisor of McKinsey Global for big data, analytics and emerging technologies. He serves in the advisory board of various organizations, and also member of various national and international committees on economics, big data, AI and fintech including serving in the National AI task force committee..